

Soccerscool®

TERMS & CONDITIONS

Players are required to attend training sessions wearing the correct attire.

Players should arrive on time for the session prepared and ready to play wearing shin-pads at all times.

We respectfully ask that watching parents please stand in the designated areas & avoid shouting instructions to players during the session.

Soccerscool uses photographic images and video footage taken during sessions to use for training, marketing and promotional purposes.

Parents who do not wish their child's images to be used should notify Soccerscool so we can action your request.

Player's progress will be reviewed at the end of each term to assess which training group is more suitable to their needs. Player's are assessed in relation to the following criteria:

- Attitude towards improving skills
- Ability to select & apply the skills & techniques being taught
- Level of competitiveness when playing games/matches

To take advantage of our early bird offer coaching fees are due on or before the first session date for each term.

If your child is unable to attend training we really appreciate parents who give us notice in advance. This helps the coaching team in our planning and preparation.

“At Soccerscool we strive for perfection, if we fail we might just settle for excellence.”